DECLARED OFF.

There Was Not Sufficient Wind to Make Any Headway.

New York, Sept. 1 .- As each attempt to have the third race is made interest wanes. This was evidenced Monday. when there were few private yachts following the Reliance and Shamrock, the excursion fleet little more than a small picnic party, and the bulletin boards in front of the newspaper offices nearly deserted. The decided superiority of the Reliance over the British vessel was demonstrated in the two races and left no doubt in the average mind as to what would be the result of the third.

Up to 8:15 o'clock Tuesday morning the wind was almost a calm, but at that time it began to freshen up, only to begin dying down again. At 19:25 the yachts appeared in a haze. The wind then had dropped to almost nothing. At 12:15 the prospects for a race were slender. The race was declared off until Wed-
